Chief Executive Officer
Oman Energy Association (OPAL)

الجمعية العمانية للطاقة
Oman Energy Association

Dear Industry Colleagues,

On behalf of Oman Energy Association (OPAL), I am delighted to invite all industry stakeholders to participate in the Inaugural Edition of the International Occupational Health Summit (IOHS 2024) in the Sultanate of Oman, scheduled from 4th to 7th February 2024. This Four-days unique event will be held at the Oman Convention & Exhibition Centre in Muscat.

IOHS 2024 will serve as an exclusive platform for policymakers, researchers, thoughtful industry leaders, international experts, management representatives, Health, Wellness & associated professionals from the wide spectrum of the national, regional & global industries, government, and the holistic community in the Sultanate of Oman to exchange knowledge, innovations, and best practices, and address the evolving challenges and opportunities in Occupational Health and Industrial Hygiene.

IOHS 2024 will bring together speakers, delegates, participants, and exhibitors, from around the world to exchange knowledge and experience driving awareness, share expertise, and foster collaborations on Occupational Health and Industrial Hygiene.

Your active participation in IOHS 2024 will ensure that you gain the most from this exclusive platform, discover the latest technology trends, exchange insights, and forge connections with like-minded professionals, all while contributing to the advancement of Occupational Health and Industrial Hygiene.

I personally invite you to join us at IOHS 2024 in Muscat, where we will create an environment that nurtures innovation, collaboration, and positive change. Let us come together and shape the future of Occupational Health and Industrial Hygiene in our industries.

ABOUT IOHS
